

THE LONDON CHEF

Cocktail Parties

We love cocktail parties at the London Chef! Our private cocktail parties are the perfect way to celebrate your important events – birthdays, anniversaries, retirements, graduations, staff parties, the holidays...!

When you host a cocktail party at the London Chef, the whole space is yours to host intimate gatherings, or large functions.

We believe in one-of-a-kind events. We offer a variety of exciting menu options including passed canapés, antipasto bars, and food stations. One of our chefs will work with you to plan a bespoke menu ideal for your event, budget, and vision.

And, if you want, we can always offer a fun and engaging cooking demonstration as part of your event!

Cocktail parties are ideal for groups up to 50, prices start at $55.00 per person and vary depending on final menu. Once you choose your date, we collect a 20% deposit, and you can pay the remaining balance after your event.

We are looking forward to your next cocktail party!
