

THE LONDON CHEF

Team Building Event

We love hosting team-building events at The London Chef! Our classes are the perfect staff event, and a great way to connect and grow as a team. We offer various formats that work well for team-building events...

INTERACTIVE CLASSES

Interactive classes are our most popular team building format where guests cook along with the chef, and enjoy everything they make at our long dining table. These classes are ideal for groups of 10-24, and are $85.00 per person (2 hours), or $100.00 per person (3 hours).

DEMONSTRATION

Demonstration classes are ideal for groups with a shorter time frame. Our 1 hour Lunch & Learn format is the perfect way to spend your lunch hour (or any other hour for that matter) with an exciting cooking demonstration and a gourmet meal. Our space comfortably seats 10-18 guests, starting at $32.50 (1 hour).

COMPETITION

We think it's always fun to add a little competition into team building events. Our "Chopped" style classes are an exciting way to explore new foods, and cooking techniques with your colleagues. And, of course we will always choose a winning team and hand out prizes! These classes are ideal for groups of 10-24, and are $85.00 per person (2 hours), or $100.00 per person (3 hours).

LARGE GROUPS

In addition to our regular formats, we can also accommodate larger groups of up to 50. We will customize an event that best suites your groups size and needs - ask us!

We have various menus for you to choose from, or ask us about designing a custom menu for your group! Once you choose a format, we will collect a 20% deposit to save the date, and the remainder is due at the end of the event.

Looking forward to cooking with you!
