Chef's Table

cooking classes

We think that it's time you invite us over to your house. We would love to cook for you and your guests from the comfort of your own home with exclusive new our offering, Chef's Table - our Chef, your kitchen, an entertaining and delicious night of food and fun.

Part cooking class, part dinner party, Chef's Table experiences are the ultimate way to host friends and family for a delicious evening in your own home. We can work with you to design a custom menu for your event, or you can let us surprise you with a bespoke, seasonal, fresh and fun menu written just for you. You and your guests can be as involved in the cooking experience as you want - watching and learning, helping the Chef prepare dishes, or just sitting back and enjoying the show while dinner is served.

You do not need a gourmet kitchen to host a Chef's Table dinner. We are excited to cook for you in your own kitchen, and are comfortable cooking almost anywhere.

Pricing

Prices start at $125.00 per person and is dependent on number of guests and final menu choices.
